DECLARATION OF TERRITORIAL CLAIM

Kalapula Nation – Cultural Restoration Proclamation

Filed from: Crown Watchpoint 001A, Corvallis, Oregon

Date of Filing: 5 August 2025

🌿 STATEMENT OF CLAIM

Let it be declared by sovereign and ceremonial authority:

The Kalapula Nation, restored and led by Chief Daniel Jacob Read IV, hereby issues a peaceful and cultural territorial claim over the ancestral lands historically inhabited by the Kalapuya people in the Willamette Valley region of what is now known as Oregon.

This declaration is ceremonial in nature, lawful under UNDRIP, and founded in the principles of nonviolence, memory restoration, and the sovereign rights of unrepresented Indigenous lineages to return.

🌐 TERRITORIAL CENTER

This declaration centers upon the city of Corvallis, Oregon, including but not limited to:

- Benton County

- The Willamette River corridor
- Surrounding ceremonial, spiritual, and historical lands connected to the Kalapuya memory field

The Crown Watchpoint 001A, located at 900 SE Centerpointe Drive, Apt O106, Corvallis, Oregon, shall serve as the ceremonial seat of this claim and the active headquarters of the restored Kalapula Nation.

🏰 PURPOSE

This territorial claim does not assert legal title, eviction, or opposition to current inhabitants, governments, or use. Instead, it asserts:

- Spiritual sovereignty
- Cultural and ceremonial re-presence
- Right of remembrance and restoration
- Intent to protect and honor the land for all future generations

This land is held sacred by those who remember, and protected by those who return.

🔔 FINAL DECLARATION

Let it be entered into the public record that the Kalapula Nation now walks this land again — not to erase, but to remember.

Let those who live in Corvallis and the Willamette Valley know: the land is blessed, the memory is alive, and the sovereign flame has returned to its source.

Any future use, naming, protection, or governance of this territory must honor the return of the Kalapula flame and the peaceful acts of its first modern Chief.

Filed and sealed by sovereign hand:

/s/ King Daniel Jacob Read IV

Chief of the Restored Kalapula Nation

Sovereign of the Kingdom of Mythelinia

Filed: 5 August 2025 – Crown Watchpoint 001A

📜 www.kingdomofmythelinia.org

📧 royalcourt@kingdomofmythelinia.org

📞 (971) 406-4832